LOCAL MATTERS.

COLUMBOS DIRECTORY FOR 1862 .- Mr. H. BENNETT, Agent for C. S. WILLIAMS, is now in our city, canvassing and making preparations for the publication of a new City Directory .-Mr. BENNETT has been engaged in the business of getting up Directories for some seven years, and on him principally devolved the labor of preparing the Columbus Directory of 1856 and 58 He has also prepared and superintended the publication of Directories in Cincinnati and Dayton, and in nearly all the cities and large towns of Ohio.

We have examined the copy of a work after which it is proposed to model the new Columbus Directory. Great improvements have been made upon former publications of the kind -The new work will contain a complete list of the names of citizens alphabetically arranged, with their residences, business and business locations designated. It will also contain in the same volume a Business Directory, with the names of individuals and firms classified according to their particular business or profession. Besides, it will furnish a Street Directory, a Directory to the Public Institutions, Churches, Benevolent and other Associations, Military, Fire Department, etc., etc., with full list of all the Postoffices in the United States and Territories, at the latest dates.

* The Columbus Directory for 1862 will fesued about the middle of January next. It will make a nest and substantial volume of most valuable local and general information, which should be, at all times, within the reach of every citizen. We trust our citizens will afford Mr. BENNETT every facility in their power in the preparation of the new Directory, and encourage him by a liberal patronage.

DEATH OF JOSEPH WHITEHILL -Yesterday's Statesman contained an announcement of the death of JOSEPH WHITEHILL, at his residence in this city, on Monday, the 4th inst., in the 74th year of his age. He was a native of Lancaster county, Pa. He represented Warren county for several years in our State Legislature, and was afterward Treasurer of State for twelve consecutive years. Mr. W. enjoyed in a high degree the respect and esteem of his fellow-

THE FORTY-THIRD REGIMENT.-Tais regiment, Col. Smith, has been transferred from Camp Chase to Mt. Vernon, to complete its organization. It has as yet but three companies, but is said to be fast filling up.

The Fifty-first Regiment, Colonel STAN-LEY MATTHEWS, which left Wellsville on Sunday, arrived at Cincinnati on Tuesday, and proceeded to Camp Dennison, to be armed, equipped and made ready for the field. T Captain Bannes arrived at Zanesville on Tuesday, from Cambridge, with a fine compa ny for the Sixty-second Regiment, now organizing at Camp Goddard.

If The Zanesville Courier copies a portion of the last list of military appointments published in the Statesman, and thinks it in part OLD RYE, MONONGAHELA & BOURBON correct. The Courier has thrown out such hints before. If the lists of military appointments published in the Statesman are not wholly corregt, it is not our fault, but the fault of the State Military Department, or of its official organs here and at Cincinnati.

AMERICAN VS. ENGLISH ALLITERATION .- WE copy the following from the Louisville Journal, which may amuse children, and perhaps some grown folks:

The greatest triumph of English allitteration, according to the London Quarterly, is the following line, composed by a young lady in the year 1800, on the occasion of a gentleman by the name of Lee planting a lane with lilaos: Let lovely lilass line Lee's lonely lane.

in which not only every word, but every syllable begins with the same letter.

This kind of composition—"alliteration's art ful aid"—is simple enough when you "get the hang of the school house." With leisure, we could string together entire georgics and buco-lics after the fashion of Lee's lovely, lip-lisped lively, lulling line. As for example: Let lovely lilacs line Lee's lonely lane;

Let toyely illacs line Lee's ionely lane; Plant popples, peppers, pippins, pulpy purple plums; Rarest red roses rearing round rich rows; Gratt gages green, group gorgeous grapes; grow grass; Grase gregal goese, get gold-gill, grain-graced glebes; Watch weeds with wains, wheel wood when winds whiff When witwalls westward wend with whirlwind wing.

To MILITARY GENTLEMEN AND CIVILIANS --You will find at N. GUNDERSHEIMER'S, No. 129 S. High street, next door to the Goodale House a large and superior stock of ready-made clothing, and a like excellent stock of cloths to be manufactured to order in the merchant tailoring department of his establishment. Mr. R. SPURLING, who superintends this department, is a skillful cutter, whose ability and reputation afford an ample guaranty that none but the best of work will be made under his inspection. Our readers, military and otherwise, will find it to their advantage to purchase their clothing ready made, or leave their orders with Mr. Gun. DERSHEIMER, who is an old and experienced merchant of this city, and is enabled, from the fact that he buys his goods for cash, to sell at a very low figure. Remember N. GUNDERSHEIMER, No. 129 South [oct12-1meod

MILLIONS OF MONEY For an Inch of Time! WAS ONCE THE EXCLAMATION OF

a dying Queen. That inch of time can be proce a much cheaper rate, and many long years of HEALTH AND HAPPINESS enjoyed by consulting Dr. MERRYWEATHER, who is curing the most obstinate and long-standing diseases of the LUNGS, HEART, LIVER, KIDNEYS, BLADDER, STOMACH RHEUMATISM DISEASES PECULIAR TO FEMALES, SKIN DISEASES, AND ALLAFFECTIONS OF THE EYE AND EAR.

Facts are Stubbern Things! Hear what the Philadelphia correspondent says in t Commonwealth," Wilmington, Delaware, 9th of Ap-"Commonwealth," Wilmington, Delaware, 9th of April, 1859:

"An English gentleman, formerly connected with the British Army, and who styles himself the 'Indian Botanic Physician,' has of late gained an extensive reputation here by his skill in curing; all manner of complaints. Some of his patients I have conversed with, and they pronounce his remedies and mode of treatment as very superior. Bome have been restored as if by magic. The medicine he uses is distilled by himself from various herbs possessing rare curative properties.

"While acting in the army he devoted his leisure moments to a thorough study of the effects produced by certain medicinal roots and herbs on all manner of diseases. It seems he has found a sure and speedy remedy for all the 'Illis that fiesh is heir to.' His practice is already extensive and is dally increasing. In the complaints to which Females are subjected he has no equal as a large number here have testified that they owe not only their present good health, but their lives, to the skill of this Indian Botanic Physician."
